

UCLA Chancellor Gene Block
invites you to a special event celebrating our UCLA Freedom Riders and exploring the power of non-violent resistance

JOURNEY TO CHANGE: From the Freedom Riders to Ferguson, Missouri

Friday, February 6, 2015 | 7:00 p.m. | Royce Hall

In 1961, over 400 activists challenged Jim Crow segregation by boarding buses nationwide and riding across state lines into the south. Their efforts pushed the limits of our society. We gather to honor their achievements and learn how we can further social change through non-violent forms of protest.
