

Bunche Center Circle of Thought Presents

Michael Hanchard

Thursday, April 9, 2015

Haines 135

12:00 PM—1:00 PM

Michael Hanchard is a professor of political science at Johns Hopkins University. He is a scholar of comparative politics specializing in nationalism, social movements, racial hierarchy and citizenship. His talk will explore four themes and topics in the contemporary world and demonstrate their interconnectedness to a more global understanding of African-American Studies.
