Friends Disappear:
The Battle for Racial Equality in Evanston

Monday, February 29th, 2016

Library and Media Center – Haines Hall 135

3:00 PM—4:00 PM

Clemson Lecturer, Mary Barr, will discuss her new book, Friends Disappear. The book focuses on how segregation created educational inequities among the friends in the neighborhood where she grew up. Barr received her B.A. in Sociology from UCLA and her Ph.D. in Sociology and African American Studies from Yale University.

The talk will be from 3:00pm-4:00pm in Haines Hall 135. There will be a short reception immediately following. This event is co-sponsored by The UCLA Department of Sociology Irene Flecknoe Ross Lecture Series Race & Ethnicity Working Group.

All-day parking ($12) and short-term parking (payable at pay stations) are available in Lots 2, 3 or 4 (enter the campus at Hilgard and Westholme avenues). UCLA is smoke-free and tobacco-free.
