UCLA
Schoenberg Theater*
(Music Building)

Directed by Byron Nora, written, produced and performed by Vickilyn Reynolds and presented by UCLA Alum Rasheeda Garner and sponsored by the UCLA Black Alumni Association (UBAA), Hattie...What I Need You to Know, a one-woman play that pays homage to actress Hattie McDaniel, the first African-American to receive the Academy Award®.

With rafter-shaking musical numbers, the show captures the true essence of McDaniel's progressive rise to fame, sordid tales of failed marriages, and her personal battles with racism inside and outside of Hollywood. This show has brought audiences to their feet from New York to Los Angeles with crowd-pleasing jazz, blues and gospel renditions. The show's a good time that's not to be missed!

*Schoenberg Hall is on the east side of campus, near the intersections of Hilgard Ave. and Westholme Ave. Parking information & Directions: <http://schoenbergtheaters.com/about/parking/>
