

Bunche Center Authors' Series and Robin Kelley Present

Sherie Randolph

Discussing her forthcoming book

Florynce "Flo" Kennedy:

The Life and Politics of Black Feminism

Monday, May 18, 2015

Haines 135

12:00 PM—2:00 PM

Sherie Randolph is assistant professor of History and Afro-American and African Studies at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. She is the former Associate Director of the Women's Research & Resource Center at Spelman College, and was most recently awarded fellowships from Emory University's James Weldon Johnson Center and the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture. Randolph is the author of Florynce "Flo" Kennedy: The Life of a Black Feminist Radical (UNCP, Fall 2015). She is currently at work on a manuscript tentatively titled "Free Them All": African American Women Exiles in Cuba.

For event information including directions and parking, visit www.bunchecenter.ucla.edu