A Screening of the Independent Film

Verona

Thursday, February 11, 2016

Library and Media Center – Haines Hall 135

11:00 AM—1:00 PM

Written and Directed by UCLA student Romeo Curtis Brooks, Verona is an independent film about a young woman in the 1800s who is deprived of love and made a slave by her biological father. The film centralizes on her forbidden love story and takes viewers on the journey into the life of a slave woman.

A Q&A discussion with the filmmaker and cast will follow the screening. To view the YouTube trailer, Click Here. This event is co-sponsored by Robin D. G. Kelley.

All-day parking ($12) and short-term parking (payable at pay stations) are available in Lots 2, 3 or 4 (enter the campus at Hilgard and Westholme avenues). UCLA is smoke-free and tobacco-free.
