A discussion of

Ade : A Love Story

Wednesday, May 11, 2016

Library and Media Center – Haines Hall 135

12 noon

Ade is about falling in love, a marriage proposal, a bloody civil war and almost dying. The book is about so many things—love and loss, interfaith relationships, the perils of war, Africa as both homeland and foreign territory. It is a deeply personal book, with many points of political and cultural resonance.

A Q&A discussion with the author will follow the book talk. Refreshments will be served.

This event is free and open to the public. All-day parking ($12) and short-term parking (payable at pay stations) are available in Lots 2,3,4 or 6 (More info at Hilgard/Westholme entrance). UCLA is smoke-free and tobacco-free.
